

CPYRA Contestant Conduct
Agreement CPYRA Rule Book

CONTESTANT DISQUALIFICATION

- A. Disqualification from CPYRA, subject to appeal to the Executive Board for individual action, shall occur for the following:
1. Competing under an assumed name or falsifying any entry information.
- B. Disqualification from a particular CPYRA rodeo shall occur for the following:
1. Intentional abuse of stock.
 2. Abuse of officials or other contestants.
 3. Tampering with rodeo stock or equipment at rodeo.
 4. Cheating by contestant or member of contestant's family.
 5. Deliberate or continued failure to report for any event.
 6. Profanity or obscenity.
 7. Quarrelling or rowdiness.
 8. Use of unapproved equipment.
 9. Acquisition of another's property.
 10. Use of or trafficking of intoxicating beverages or drugs.
 11. All horses used in rodeo competition must be suitable and safe for the events.
 12. No Smoking permitted in arena or chute area.
- C. Repeated violations of Paragraph B may result in disqualification from the entire rodeo or your membership terminated in CPYRA.
- D. A contestant must be disqualified from a particular event for the following:
1. Improper attire
 2. Failure to comply with Arena Director's instructions
 3. Not being ready when called
 4. Refusing stock draw
- E. Suspended contestants who have entered any CPYRA rodeo will automatically surrender any fees advanced to that rodeo after the date of suspension.
- F. Any contestant disqualified from CPYRA competition has the right to petition the Executive Board for reinstatement. A statement from both the contestant and the party making the disqualification must be included on the petition.
- G. The executive Board reserves the right to put a contestant on probation for disciplinary action due to unbecoming conduct for a maximum period of one rodeo a year.

Contestant Name

Contestant Signature

Parent/Guardian Signature

Date